Recommendation that the navigation of the Rhine be opened to all nations without discrimination was made in a report to the Peace Conference to-day by the Commission on the International Regime of Waterways. Railways and Ports. It is suggested that the Rhine He controlled by a commission similar to the Danube Commission.

The status of the Kiel Canal has been settled by the Commission on the basis of the freedom of use for all nations for merchant vessels or warships in time of peace. The canal would continum under German ownership and operation.

The question of the fortification of the canal is left by the Commission to the decision of military and naval experts. CLAIM MADE BY BELGIUM RE-

When the German delegates are summoned to Paris they will be invited to sign the treaty, it is understood here, and there will be no discussion with a view to altering any of its principal provisions, although there may be an adjustment of minor festures. The council to-day held a further incussion of the serious internal conditions in Poland, and it is probable that Poland's frontier adjoining Germany will be finally determined before the discussion ends. The indications are that Poland will obtain sea outlet northward to the Baltic, and the tendency is to include Danzig in the Polish corridor across

Prussia. The League of Nations plan is receiving further attention, and it is believed the council is receiving some word from President Wilson on this ubject. The belief is growing herthat some revisions will be made in
